By signing this application, parents are providing Athens ISD written approval for acceleration. Should all requirements of §74.24 be met, students will be accelerated onto the next grade level or be given credit in the subject tested.

Students who register for an examination and do not take the exam will be assessed a fine equal to the cost of procuring the examination, including charges for shipping and handling. Parent(s)/Guardian(s) will receive notice of their child's specific examination date(s), time(s), and test location(s) approximately one week prior to testing. If you need further assistance, contact your campus administrator.

The exam will be administered by the exam date listed above or by the expiration date provided by the institution after registration. Written exams are put in the mail the next business day to the testing institution. Grades will be mailed back to schools within 30 days. Parent(s)/Guardian(s) will be notified of results.
